

Guide to canola bloom stages

Crops are said to be at a particular point once half of the plants have reached that bloom stage, eg. a crop where 50% of plants have 10 flowers open on the main stem, is at 10% bloom.

Download the SclerotiniaCM tool to determine whether fungicide applications to manage sclerotinia stem rot are worthwhile for your paddock and the local conditions.